

Access Statement For Alexander B&B Cambridge UK

Introduction

The Alexander Bed and Breakfast is run from our family home in a Victorian house located in a quiet residential area of central Cambridge. We aim to cater for the needs of all visitors in our home. The following statement is a summary of our provision. If you have any specific questions please feel free to call us and we will endeavour to help.

The extremely central location, near the city centre and train and bus stations, makes it an ideal place to stay whether working, studying, or visiting the city and outlying attractions.

We have 2 en suite bedrooms.

No smoking. Off street parking is available. Early booking is essential.

Minimum two-night stay required.

Wi-Fi connection is available.

Good continental breakfast included.

Various European languages are spoken.

Discounts may be available for long-stay guests.

Pre-Arrival

- The closest airport is Stansted Airport, from where there are direct trains or coaches to Cambridge.
- From London Heathrow or Gatwick airports there are direct coaches to Cambridge. Trains from London Kings Cross station are the fastest and most direct to Cambridge. Liverpool Street Station trains are also direct but slower.

From elsewhere or for further details please look at our website under "location".

- We are a 15-20 minute walk into town. Bicycles can be rented locally for anything from one day to one year! It is the easiest way to get around Cambridge although there are local bus services too.
- If you to have any questions about how to get here, please do not hesitate to phone us on 01223-525725 or email us before arrival.

Arrival & Car Parking Facilities

- Off street parking is available on a first come first served basis for one car. There is a dropped kerb allowing access to the gravelled parking space immediately in front of the house. Otherwise there is on street parking available with the use of one of our visitors parking permits.
 - If you park on the road there is one step up from the pavement to the red and black Victorian tiled path to the red front door of our home.
 - There is a small "lip" step at the entrance to the house from the outside.
 - The door bell is on the left as you face the house.
 - N.B. There is no B&B sign outside of the house as we wish to retain the intimate and discrete feeling of a private home.
- At night there is a light left on both outside the house and in the entrance hall.

Main Entrance & Reception

- both our rooms are on the ground floor and are en suite. They are off the corridor as you enter the house. The corridor is lit at night.
- If you need to arrive before the previous guests have left and hence before your room is ready you are welcome to leave your luggage with us until your room is ready. This also applies for the end of your stay.

If possible we will give you a set of keys immediately so that you can make yourself independent and feel free to come and go as you please.
